A.	Economic Development and Regeneration
	The Authority has a general power of competence to be exercised concurrently with the constituent councils so far as those functions are exercisable for the purposes of economic development and regeneration.	Section 1 of the Localism Act 2011	Article 13(1) (a), 2018 Order.
	The general power of competence gives the Authority the same power as an individual generally has. This includes the power to do things that unlike anything that any other public body has done before, or may currently do. There are boundaries on the exercise of the general power, including the definition of “an individual” and statutory restrictions include:- (a) those that apply to existing powers that are overlapped by the general power; (b) any express prohibitions, restrictions and limitations within primary or secondary legislation, to the use of the general

	power (but restrictions in post-commencement legislation will only apply to the general power where they are expressed to do so); (c) that the general power does not give local authorities power to delegate or contract out of their functions, nor to alter governance arrangements; and (d) the limits on doing things for commercial purpose in exercise of the general power.
B.	Housing and Regeneration Functions
	Subject to the limitation of the exercise of the functions, the Authority can concurrently exercise with the constituent councils the following powers in relation to housing, shops and acquisition of land:-		The following provisions of the Housing Act 1985 are modified so as to correspond with the Combined Authority and the combined area:-	Article 13, 2018 Order.

C.	Housing and Regeneration functions corresponding to those of the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA)
	Subject to the limitation on the exercise of the functions the Authority can concurrently exercise with the HCA for the purposes of, or for purposes incidental to, the objects listed in the 2018 Order* the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• provide housing or other land and facilitate the provision of housing or other land</li> <li>• regenerate or develop land</li> <li>• provide infrastructure and to facilitate the provision of infrastructure.</li> </ul> The Authority will therefore be able to acquire, hold, improve, manage, reclaim, repair or dispose of housing or other land or property, or facilitate these activities. It will also be able to carry out building and other operations, including the demolition or conversion of buildings, or facilitate such operations. The acquisition of land by the Authority may be by agreement or compulsorily if the Secretary of State authorises it to do so. Compulsory acquisition may include the extinguishment of private rights of way or rights in relation to apparatus and for apparatus to vest in the Authority. Where compulsory acquisition of land and new rights over land is intended, the procedure contained in The Acquisition of Land Act 1981 is required to be followed. In summary:		The following provisions of the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008 are modified so as to correspond with the Combined Authority and the combined area:- Section 5 (powers to provide housing or other land); Section 6 (powers for regeneration, development or effective use of land); and Section 7 (powers in relation to infrastructure). Section 8 (powers to deal with land etc.); Section 9 (acquisition of land); Section 10 (restrictions of disposal of land); Section 11 (main powers in relation to acquired land); and Section 12 (powers in relation to, and for, statutory undertakers).	Article 14, 2018 Order.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the 1981 Act contains requirements as to publicity and notification, to enable any person to submit an objection to the Secretary of State within the specified period;</li> <li>• a statutory objector is a “qualifying person” on whom section 12 of the 1981 Act requires notice to be served and includes owners, leaseholders, tenants and occupiers of any land in the compulsory purchase order, and any other person having a right to claim compensation for interference with rights they enjoy over land, or who are likely to be entitled to make a claim for compensation for “injurious affection” (decrease in value of retained land as a result of the acquisition and proposed use of the land which is being acquired);</li> <li>• if a relevant objection is made by a person with a statutory interest in the land, a public local inquiry will generally be held. It is also open to the statutory objectors to agree to their objections being considered through the written representations procedure;</li> <li>• an inspector will prepare a report and the Secretary of State will then consider the findings of the report and the inspector's recommendation when deciding whether or not to confirm a compulsory purchase order;</li> <li>• where an order is confirmed, the usual compensation regime will apply, which is linked to the value of the land being acquired and may also include compensation for disturbance and other losses and, for example, legal costs in preparing a compensation claim.</li> </ul>		Paragraphs 19 and 20 of the Schedule 3; and Paragraphs 1,2,3,4,6,10 and 20 of Schedule 4.
--	--	--	---	--

	The legislation ensures that following any compulsory acquisition of land the usual regime for compensation applies. The Authority is not permitted to dispose of land for less than the best consideration it can reasonably obtain, unless the Secretary of State consents. The restriction to dispose of land for less than best consideration does not apply where the Authority proposes to dispose of land by granting or assigning a short tenancy (a term of seven years or less). Unless the Secretary of State consents, the Authority is not permitted to dispose of land that it has acquired by way of compulsory purchase. Such a disposal would also be subject to the restrictions on disposal at less than best consideration. Aside from this, the Authority may dispose of land held by it in any way it considers appropriate. Any burial ground which has been used for the burial of the dead may not be used by the Authority until prescribed requirements about the removal and re-interment of human remains, and the disposal of monuments, has been complied with. The Authority may use consecrated land (other than burial grounds) provided that such use complies with requirements in regulations (which may be made by the Secretary of State under this Schedule) about the disposal of monuments and any provisions prohibiting or restricting use of the land while any church or other building (including any part of) used, or formerly used, for religious worship is on the land.
